Details:

As of March 31, 2024, the current URL for VFO Production will cease to function:

<https://vfoprod-consolidated.synchronoss.net>

We have a new URL for VFO Production which is available now for immediate use:

<https://vfoprod-consolidated.razorflow.ai>

It is crucial that you update your bookmarks, saved links, and any automated processes to reflect this change. Beginning April 1, 2024, attempts to access services via the old URL will be unsuccessful.

For those who connect via e-bonding, please ensure that you have received the new Certificate and updated URL. If your company has not yet received this communication or requires assistance with the transition, please do not hesitate to contact us at consolidatedcmp@consolidated.com. Our team is ready to assist you and ensure a seamless transition to the new URL.

We apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause and appreciate your cooperation in ensuring a smooth transition. Thank you for your continued partnership with us.
