New Litchfield/Hillsboro area phone book being delivered

Recycle old phone books at Consolidated's Litchfield Communication Center

MATTOON – The Phone Book from Consolidated Communications is being delivered to residents of Litchfield, Hillsboro and the surrounding area over the next few weeks.

The 2007-2008 official directory of Consolidated Communications is packed with handy features, including a numerical cross reference guide that allows users to look up a phone number instead of the name. The directory also includes easy-to-read white and yellow page listings, and features several pages of Litchfield, Hillsboro and surrounding area community information, city maps, governmental listings and a community calendar.

“Consolidated Communications is proud to provide its customers with a better local directory product and a much higher level of customer service with The Phone Book from Consolidated,” said Jim Bristow, vice president, Directory Services.

In addition to the traditional directory that is being delivered to area residents now, The Phone Book from Consolidated is also available in a mini book format. The mini format is ideal for use in tight places such as vehicles or offices. Area residents can request a mini book by visiting Consolidated's Litchfield Communication Center.

The Litchfield and Hillsboro and surrounding area directory is also available online at the Consolidated Communications Web site at www.consolidated.com. The online directory includes the same information as the printed directory, including white and yellow pages, and is easily searchable by name and business classification.

Area residents are encouraged to recycle their old phone books by dropping them off at Consolidated's Litchfield Communication Center, 301 N. Madison Street, Litchfield.
